KIDNAPED HEIR TO MILLIONS IS RETURNED SAFELY

Grandson Of Wealthy St.
Louis Brewer Was Freed Thursday

St. Louis, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Charles Y. Abernathy, 28-year-old Negro and son of Pearl Abernathy, Negro real estate dealer here, was the kidnaper of Adolphus Busch, Orthwein, 13-year-old grandson of August A. Busch, president of Anheuser Busch, Inc., and great grandson of Adolphus Busch, late millionaire brewer, Harry Trol, attorney for the family, disclosed today.

While Trol would not make a definite statement, this was learned from him after police and special investigators said they had determined Charles Abernathy was the abductor. The senior Abernathy brought about the restoration of the boy to his parents yesterday afternoon after he had been kidnapped from the family chauffeur New Year's Eve and held for 20 hours. Police have taken no action against young Abernathy.

Trol said that yesterday afternoon Pearl Abernathy telephoned Percy J. Orthwein, the boy's father, told him the boy was safe and said "as father to father, I want to return your boy."

The attorney said no ransom money was paid for the return of the boy. He said he is under the impression that the price for the release of the boy was a promise not to prosecute Charles Abernathy. The son of the Negro real estate dealer today was reported in hiding.

Authorities in St. Louis county, where the Orthwein estate is located in exclusive Huntleigh village, said however, they would institute proceedings against young Abernathy. St. Louis city police started a search for the Negro to arrest him, if possible, for Sheriff Alfred Hill of St. Louis county.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 2.—(UP)—Adolphus Busch, Orthwein, 13, who looks like Prince Michael of Roumania and is destined to inherit more than $50,000,000, rested today at the estate of his grandfather after spending almost 24 hours with a kidnaper who did not harm him. A mystery surrounded the return of the boy to his parents, who were determined to keep a promise which they broadcast many times on New Year's Day, that "any amount" would be paid for his release "and no questions asked."

A belief that the kidnapping was merely an incident to the robbery of the Orthwein chauffeur was expressed by members of the family and attorneys who declared not one cent of ransom had been paid.

Although tired, Adolph himself was willing to talk after his return late yesterday, but was prevented by his parents and their attorneys from saying anything which might incriminate anyone or reveal the details of the release agreement.

Taken New Year's Eve.
The boy was kidnapped on New Year's Eve by a man who held up Roy Yowell, the Orthwein chauffeur, as Yowell was driving out of the Orthwein estate. Yowell believed man was a Negro, but Adolphus did not know.

"Then he drove me back and forth," the boy told newspapermen last night in giving a censored account of his adventure.

"Finally," he said, "I got lost. We went with the lights on the car out for maybe 10 miles and then the man made me get into another automobile. He had his collar around his face and I couldn't tell whether he was a Negro or a white man. I couldn't identify him now."

"He took me to a house and made me put on a black hood. It had a little hole in it and I could breathe, but I could see. He made me lie down on some chairs and put a blanket over me so I couldn't see. I saw the man in the house but he had a hood over his head then."

Attorney's Comment.
Harry Trol, attorney for Mr. and Mrs. Percy J. Orthwein, Adolphus' parents, gave an incomplete account of the release.

"About all I can say is that the transaction to get back the boy came about through a connection made 30 years ago," said Trol.

The Orthweins received a telephone call yesterday at 1 P. M. informing them that Adolphus was safe, Trol said. Trol and Orthwein left soon afterward, held a conference at the Sheriff's office and at 2 o'clock Orthwein left to get his son, whom he found trudging along a road near the estate of his millionaire grandfather, August Busch, the former brewer. This estate once was owned by President U. S. Grant.

"Well, here I am, and I'm glad to be back," Adolphus told his mother upon his return. He looked tired and his long trousers, the first pair he ever had worn, were wrinkled.

Adolphus admitted that he was frightened when the kidnaper took him away from Yowell and then forced the chauffeur from the car and drove away.

The senior Abernathy was arrested today on a charge of kidnapping.

BANK ROBBERS
SET TIME LOCK
FOR 72 HOURS

Officials Of Robbed
Institution Can't
Open The Safe

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Federal bank examiners closed the Lawrence Avenue National Bank today pending an investigation of the alleged robbery and kidnapping of an Assistant Cashier yesterday by four men. Bank officials, attempting to open the vault today, found the bandits had swung the steel doors shut and set the time lock for its maximum run of 72 hours, rendering an examination impossible until Sunday afternoon.

The robbery was reported by John E. Malloy, assistant cashier, who said he was held prisoner five hours in the bank yesterday and finally kidnapped in his own car and taken to Milwaukee by four men. The quartet had posed as bank examiners, he said, is asking him to meet them at the bank on New Year's day.

Malloy, reporting to Milwaukee police after his release there, said the vault was timed to open at 2 p. m. yesterday.

Police were posted at the bank this morning to prevent trouble from worried depositors who gathered at the door.

Malloy told detectives today the robbers took about $12,000, all the cash that was in the safe, and looted the safe deposit boxes of bonds, cash and jewelry.

The directors met New Year's Eve, Malloy said, considering a proposed merger with another bank. When the men called him by telephone he therefore thought the bank examiners were to aid in completing the merger details, he said.

Nine Members Of Two Families Killed
In One Crash

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(UP)—A fast Chicago-to-Montreal Grand Thunk passenger train struck an automobile in the suburb of Harvey last night, killed nine persons and brought the total auto fatalities in Cook county on New Year's Day to 17, a record.

Those killed were members of the Frank Nowak and Matthew Clason families. All nine were riding in a small sedan. A tenth occupant of the car, a three months' old baby, was thrown 200 feet into a snow-filled ditch and picked up unhurt.

Besides Nowak, who was 35, and Clason, who was 37, those killed were: Mrs. Olason, 32; Muriel Olason, 8; Vilborg Pearl Olason, 5; Calvin Olason, 10; Mrs. Novak, 33; Adam Novak, 8; and Lorraine Novak, 5. The baby who escaped was Lorraine Margaret Olason. Both the Olason and Novak families lived in Chicago. The automobile was owned and driven by Olason.

The automobile toll for the first day of 1931 was far larger than the average for 1930, when 1,136, an average of slightly more than three persons a day, were killed.

BANDITS AMBUSH
MARINES; EIGHT
KILLED IN FIGHT

Nicaraguan Rebels Attack
U. S. Force On New Year's Day

Washington, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Colonel Frederic Bradman, Commandant of the Marines in Nicaragua, today held full authority to cope with the bandits who yesterday killed eight of his men.

Marine headquarters had only brief details of the skirmish, which resulted in the greatest single loss the American troops have suffered since entering Nicaragua in 1927 to meet the challenge of the rebel leader, Augustino Sandino. It was not expected that a full report would be received prior to the weekly report of Colonel Bradman.

Immediate withdrawal of the Marines from Nicaragua was proposed today by Senator King, Democrat, Utah.

In the meantime, Brigadier General Myers, assistant to the Commandant, said no orders had been issued to Colonel Bradman, since he was in the field and would know best what action was necessary.

The loss of the eight men brought to 27 the number of Marines killed in the four years the forces have policed the country, fourteen having died from wounds received in action.

Two previous skirmishes with bandits during the week have been reported.

The first occurred on Sunday, December 28, near El Salto and the second on Monday, near Sisile. Marine forces suffered no casualties in either battle. Two bandits were killed and five wounded in the second encounter.

Describing the killing as a "tragedy which must arouse the sympathies of not the anger of the American people," Senator King said it was "a bad thing to send bayonets to support American investments in foreign countries."

He said he would introduce a resolution Monday calling for "absolute withdrawal—politically and militarily"—so the Nicaraguans "may work out their own destiny."

"We have been in the habit of intervening too much in foreign lands," King added. "It is bound to provoke and has provoked resentments and feeling of ill will on the part of Latin Americans."

"It leads them to believe we are imperially inclined not only from a business but a military point of view—that we are too apt to support by military force economic penetration."

Managua, Nicaragua, Jan. 2.—(UP)—A patrol of 50 United States Marines today hunted a group of bandits who attacked a small Marine patrol from ambush, killing eight and wounding two with heavy rifle fire.

The wounded men, Private Mack Hutcherson of Shreveport, La., and Private Frank Austin Jackson of Lawrenceville, Ga., were expected to recover. The dead and wounded were brought here in trucks.

Bandit casualties were reportedly eleven killed and four wounded. The eight Marines killed were: Sergeant Arthur M. Palrang, next of kin, father, Arthur M. Palrang, Fort Lyon, Colo.

Private, 1st class, Irving W. Aron; next of kin, mother, Mrs. Cecelia Aron, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Private Lambert Bush; father, Richard H. Bush, Bay Minnet, Ala.

Private Edward Everett Elliott; grandfather, Ely Elliott, Des Moines, Ia.

Private Joseph Albert Harbach; guardian, Blanche Moffat, Washington, Pa.

Private Frank Kosteradski; father, Peter K. Kosteradski, Buffalo, N. Y.

Private Richard J. Lits; mother, Pearl Litz, Indianapolis, Ind.

Private Joseph Arthur McCarthy; father, John W. McCarthy, Chillicothe, Mo.

Bandits Hid In Bushes
The bandits were said to have been commanded by Miguel Ortiz, a chief of the rebel Augustino Sandino. They attacked the Marines while the patrol was repairing telephone lines two miles south of Achaupa, in the Department of Nueva Segovia. The Marines were commanded by Sergeant Palrang.

The bandits, hidden in bushes, opened a heavy fire in front of the patrol, followed by barrages from the right flank and the rear. Rifles and automatic rifles took the life of one Marine in the first volley. His comrades hastily dismounted from their mules and began a battle that lasted for two hours.

Private Hutcherson was ordered to return to Ocotlán for aid. He was wounded from ambush and crawled into a corn field. Authorities received first news of the attack from natives.

Private Jackson was the last man in the party left alive. He was wounded in the shoulder and hid in a bush until a relief party arrived.

While natives were telling the story of the attack at a Marine headquarters today, a Marine was reported to have been killed.

Aurora Youths' Tour
On New Years Eve
Ended In Lee

BULLETIN
Henry Wilson, alias Nelson of Aurora, entered a plea of guilty to an information charging possession and transportation of intoxicating liquor when taken before Judge Leech in the county court today. He was sentenced to serve 90 days at the state work farm at Vandalia and stand committed until a fine of $250 and costs is paid. The fine was assessed on the count charging possession and the state farm sentence for transporting.

Don Cromer, 21, who claimed ownership of the car in which the liquor was found, refused to plead guilty and Judge Leech continued his case until February 4, fixing his bonds in the sum of $2,000 in default of which he was returned to the county jail. Wilson claimed ownership of the liquor. His wife and two small sons, he stated, were living with her parents at Shabbona.

Aurora youths, set out in the former's car Wednesday afternoon to spread "New Year's joy" among the residents of villages in Lee and DeKalb counties. They arrived in the village of Lee in the east end of Lee county about 6 o'clock Wednesday evening after a fairly successful tour of small towns in DeKalb and Kane counties, but here their tour halted.

The young men made the mistake of inviting Deputy Sheriff Marshall Edwards to accompany them to their automobile, which was parked in the business section of the village, to join them in a drink. The deputy went to the car and the outlay that met his gaze was a revelation. Two cases of pint bottles bearing fancy labels and dainty colored seals over the corks, a reserve supply to fill the bottles, additional corks and seals and a bottle, a cocktail shaker and even the powdered sugar for cocktails was contained in the boxes in the car.

One of the young men apologized for having not brought soda along to mix a drink and left to accommodate their guest. When the deputy realized his position he placed Nelson under arrest and when Cromer returned a few moments later with a bottle of white pop, he too, was arrested. Both were brought to Dixon at once where a search warrant for the car was obtained from Justice Grover Gehant. The search of the car revealed pints of alcohol, a gallon tin can of alcohol, several empty bottles, corks, seal caps, labels for both rye and bourbon liquor, a cocktail shaker and powdered sugar for use in mixing drinks.

Both were held under bonds of $2,000 each on charges of transporting and possessing intoxicating liquor when taken before Justice Gehant Wednesday evening and in default of bond were remanded to the county jail.

Chicago Policeman
Killed In Battle

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(UP)—Acting Police Commissioner John Alcock began today a personal investigation of a series of New Year's Day battles between officers and holdup men which resulted in the killing of one man and wounding of nine others.

Alcock especially was interested in a battle at the C & O cabaret on Clark street. Two policemen were wounded in this fight and three others, two of them reported to be holdup men, were shot. Witnesses did not agree whether the officers were in the cabaret when the holdup men entered or followed them in.

The commissioner also investigated the shooting to death of Officer John Vondruska, who fought five bandits who held up a taxicab office. Two men, suffering from gunshot wounds, later were found in hospitals. It was believed they might have taken part in the holdup and been shot by Vondruska before he fell.

The other New Year victims were shot in individual holdup attempts.

St. Louis Gangster
Slayer Of Lingle

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Suspected of complicity in the slaying of Jake Lingle, Tribune crime reporter, Leo Loeffler, a St. Louis gangster, is held for questioning at a hotel, according to the Daily News.

Loeffler is reported to have been handed over to State's Attorney's detectives on a tip from an ally of Al Capone.

Loeffler, a former member of Egan's Rats gang of St. Louis, was captured 13 days ago. He has been under constant questioning since in the carefully guarded hotel suite where a dozen or more witnesses are reported to have tentatively identified him. Loeffler steadfastly denies knowledge of the murder.

Information that Loeffler might be the slayer came to Pat Roche, Chief investigator for the State's Attorney, after his men had taken into custody a number of armed hoodlums during and after the recent wedding of Ma-falda Capone, sister of the gang boss.

Gangsters are reported to have "pointed a finger at" Loeffler only after conferences with gangland superiors and advisers.

Holiday Receipts

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(UP)—New Year's receipts of $1500 were taken from the Canton Tea Gardens in the loop today by a bandit who held up Chin Kong Yu, cashier, as he was counting the money preparatory to depositing it in a bank.

Kenosha, Wis., Jan. 2.—(UP)—Robbers entered a Kenosha saloon today, emptied the safe of all its contents and kidnapped Frank Buffalo, the bartender, and William Fischer, a porter.

Soon after the kidnapping, Buffalo telephoned from Deerfield, Ill., to report that he and Fischer had been released there unharmed.

The robbers entered the saloon shortly after it had been opened at 3 A. M. The safe was ransacked.

A bakery wagon driver discovered the robbery and notified officials. While they were investigating, Buffalo telephoned and told of their being driven to Deerfield in the bandits' automobile.

CAPITAL POLICE

OF GIRL'S DEATH

Undertaker Finds Bullet
In Head Of A Washington Miss

Washington, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Why pretty Beulah Limerick was shot to death and by whom, still baffled Washington police today, two days after an undertaker accidentally discovered a hidden bullet hole at the back of her head.

The authorities had turned loose a score of persons questioned since the girl was found dead Wednesday, but they held her brother, Vernon Limerick, Richard Reed, who lived at her house, and Edward Paddy, who had been her escort at a dance Tuesday night.

A "jealous suitor" perhaps killed her, police thought, and they scanned the long list of her intimate friends for clues. They studied too a diary the 19-year-old girl had kept. It contained, they said, many frank references to a number of her boy friends.

Stories of Three Men
The story of the three men, as police told it, was that Paddy took the girl home from the dance about 1:30 Wednesday morning. Vernon Limerick came down from his third floor room and talked with them a while. Reed was asleep then but arose about a quarter to five and went down as was his custom to light a fire in Beulah's room. She lay on her side. The covers were over her head, he said, and he did not disturb her. Soon he left for his work at a filling station.

Vernon took up the story. His alarm went off at 8:30. He called to his sister and receiving no answer went down to her room. She was flat on her back, the covers drawn back to her waist. He could not rouse her and went to his mother's apartment some distance off for aid.

About 10 o'clock he called a hospital. An interne came and noticing blood flecks at the girl's mouth, pronounced her dead from hemorrhage. A routine death certificate was issued. Late that evening the undertaker discovered the bullet hole. Police found four revolvers in the home or premises frequented by the Limericks but none would fit the bullet wound in her head.

Police investigating today learned the girl had been married five years ago and an annulment was recently granted the girl's mother, Mrs. Dora E. Limerick. The girl's former husband, William Earl Atcheson, is being sought.

Friends Of Miss Johnson, Great Britain,
Are Worried

London, Jan. 2.—(AP)—General astonishment has been aroused in Great Britain by departure of Miss Amy Johnson, 23-year-old aviator, on a long lone flight across snow-covered northern Eurasia to Peking, China.

Leaving Hendon air-drome yesterday forenoon, she stopped at Lymington and proceeded to Liege, Belgium, for the night. She expects to continue to Berlin, then to Moscow, where equipping her plane with skis, she will fly across barren Siberia and Mongolia to Peking.

In addition to general fear for her safety in view of the extreme hazards of such a journey her friends were represented today as feeling considerable anxiety on account of her health.

The Daily Express said she was in ill health and had become a neurotic from the strain of her flight to Australia.

The Soviet embassy at London told the Daily Herald that such a flight as she contemplated would be difficult and that she must be prepared for intense cold with the ground peering several feet deep in snow, adding that she would be all right if she reached an air-drome at every landing but that she did not know what hazards she might have to face.

Of the 16 fatalities in New York state, nine were caused by asphyxiation and only two by automobile accidents.

Stray bullets wounded 12 persons in Philadelphia. Four were fatally wounded in gun fights. Three were killed in automobile accidents and another was drowned.

One policeman was shot to death and two other policemen wounded in gun fights with gangsters in Chicago. Sixteen others, including three robbers, were wounded there. Ohio's automobile fatalities totaled seven. Six were killed in automobile accidents in Massachusetts. Connecticut reported six killed.

Farm Board Chairman In Reply To Head Oklahoma Farm Union

Washington, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Chairman of the Farm Board, today declared "absolutely untrue" statements concerning him made recently by John A. Simpson, president of the Farmers Education and Cooperative Union of Oklahoma City.

Legge made public his reply, dated December 31, to a letter from Simpson who recently charged the farm chairman had told the Senate Agriculture committee his board had sought to depress wheat prices.

"I am in receipt of your letter of December 24 and can see no good," wrote Legge, "resulting to the farmers from a further exchange of personalities between us. It would be highly improper for me to enter into any discussion of what was said in an executive session of a Senate committee, but I do want to repeat most emphatically that the statements you have been using as having been made by me at this hearing are absolutely untrue."

Absurd Accusation
"Entirely aside from anything when happened at this meeting, isn't it rather absurd to accuse us of trying to depress the price of wheat at a time when the domestic markets are twenty-five to thirty-five cents a bushel, depending on where the wheat might be located, above what it would bring if exported today, the Liverpool price averaging at present approximately twenty cents a bushel under the Chicago figure for the same grade of wheat? Don't you realize that in taking this position you are aligning yourself with the interests which are so bitterly opposing all efforts to agriculture in an effective way?"

Nothing To Conceal
"So far as I know no resolution has been introduced in Congress asking for an investigation of the Farm Board, but have been informed that the private traders in grain and cotton have been trying to have such a resolution introduced. Do you wish to place yourself in the position of supporting their activities? So far as the board is concerned we have nothing to conceal and have always tried to furnish to the various committees of Congress such information as they have asked for."

Of course, we would be sorry to see the administration of the Agricultural Marketing Act drawn into partisan politics. This act was passed by the friends of agriculture without regard to party lines. The board has taken no part in political activities of any kind. Our work is being done the way we believe to be the best interests of the producer and we are going to continue straight ahead. If you doubt that real progress is being made, we invite you to call upon the farm organizations that are participating in the program laid down by Congress."

GOVERNMENT OF
PANAMA SEIZED
BY YOUNG FOES

Lawyer, 44, Is at Head Of Provisional Government Of Nation

BULLETIN
Panama City, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Hartwell P. Ayers, American newspaper correspondent who was wounded in the fighting which accompanied this morning's successful revolt, died at noon in the Gorgas hospital.

President Arosemena, overthrown in the sudden revolt, named Harmodio Arias Premier of Panama this afternoon, then resigned as President leaving Arias at liberty to form a new cabinet.

This arrangement was reached in a conference between the President and the revolutionary leaders. It leaves Arias and his party in full charge of the government.

Premier Daniel Ballen also resigned, but the status of Vice President Tomas Babilier Duque was not immediately ascertained.

BULLETIN
Washington, Jan. 2.—(UP)—The State Department said today the United States would not intervene in Panama unless the need for such action to restore order was clearly established. Developments so far, in the view of officials, do not warrant intervention.

Panama City, Jan. 2.—(UP)—Revolutionaries seized the Capital today and proclaimed a provisional government headed by Dr. Harmodio Arias, a 44-year-old lawyer.

There was a brief conflict, marked by heavy machine gun and rifle fire. Insurgent leaders said eight men had been killed and an undetermined number, including an American newspaper correspondent, wounded. The correspondent was Hartwell Ayers.

President Florencio Arosemena Arosemena, Liberal party leader who took office on October 1, 1928, for four years, was taken prisoner by revolutionaries who slipped into the presidential palace from the back of an adjoining house and descended on the loyal police guards from the rear.

The rebels met Arosemena on the second floor, taking him prisoner and holding him under guard in the palace.

"I have not resigned and I will never resign," was the statement which Arosemena gave the United Press after the palace was captured.

Protect U. S. Legation
A truck load of United States soldiers arrived from the Canal Zone to protect the American legation.

American Minister Roy T. Davis conferred with Arias, who was proclaimed head of the provisional government. Arias is not a member of any political faction.

Military police guarded the palace outside and civilian guards occupied the debris-littered and, in some places blood-stained interior. Wild shots damaged the presidential palace.

The movement against the Arosemena regime was carried out rapidly during the night by youthful insurgents, many of whom did not even know how to handle their rifles. Thousands of persons stood on balconies in their nightclothes, watching the frantic gathering of rebel forces in the district where the presidential palace was guarded by police, armed with machine guns.

Colorful Lot
The revolutionists were a colorful lot. A sturdy man who appeared to be one of their leaders wore a grey sweater tucked inside his belt and strapped the trigger of his empty rifle as he talked to the correspondent. He did not appear at all worried or excited.

Another, a large fellow in a soiled linen suit and wearing a felt hat, was summoned to the police station and started trotting off toward the palace with a message. He carried his rifle at his side, muzzed downward, and looked more like a hunter than a soldier.

A rebel wearing a fireman's cap was on duty at the head of Sixth street. Others fidgeted back and forth across the street, apparently awaiting orders.

The rebel formation near the palace was loose and not well organized, but the youths did not break ranks when the battle of machine guns was heard from the palace.

A civilian armed with a shot gun directed traffic near the palace. He clutched his weapon

WILD DUCKS

WIFT in October comes the night,

Clear and cold as a shining blade,

Loud with the sound of wings in flight

High in the darkness undis-
mayed;

Steering their way from star to star

Herding the host with reed-note words

Over the country dim and far,

Brave and restless go the birds.

Out of the island waters brown,

Leaving the highland streams in spate

Over the mountain's snow-tipped crown

They hurry where Southern haunts await;

And downward slipping from midnight skies,

Their music sounds like an elfin horn

Calling to magical enterprise

Over the sleeping hills of Lorn

Farther, fainter, I hear them go.

And farther yet, till the wild
sounds cease,

Leaving the Northern wind to blow
Softly over a night of peace;

But still in my heart the echoes
wake,

Crying long of enchanted things.

The wide free road that the travelers take,

The eager urge of unfettered wings.

Mr. Burkett Sur- prised on Birthday

About twenty-eight friends of Luther E. Burkett planned and successfully carried out a very clever surprise on Dec. 27th, it being his 70th birthday. He was very comfortable in his evening chair when a rap came on the door. Turning on the porch light he soon realized that the joke was on him and after recovering from the surprise he soon made them all welcome and all enjoyed a happy evening of games of various kinds. He was the recipient of a very beautiful bouquet of roses. A tempting lunch was served consisting of sandwiches, salad, cake, pickles and coffee. At a late hour, all departed wishing "Uncle Lute," as he is more commonly called many more happy birthdays and one guest gave him promise of coming back again in 30 years. Those present to enjoy the happy occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Martin and family of Sterling; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lindeman of Dixon and son Guy, from Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Courtwright and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Courtwright of Dixon; Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Topper and family of Dixon, and Mrs. Topper and two sons from Gettysburg, Pa. and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Burkett and family of Dixon.

Hoovers Smilingly Greet Six Thousand

Washington, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Machine-like, they counted the guests at the White House yesterday and determined that the number of persons who shook hands with the President and Mrs. Hoover was exactly 6,429.

But there was nothing mechanical about the reception itself, nor the smilingly uttered: "Happy New Year," which accompanied each of the 12,858 handshakes. In fact, the day gave the Hoover family one more opportunity to add their own ideas to the store of tradition built up around White House functions.

For one thing the thousands were not kept in line to do a quick-step out of the presidential mansion as soon as they had received their handshake. All were allowed to stay as long as they wished in the great East room, occupying chairs and sofas or standing about to gaze at the portraits of long-since gone Presidents and First Ladies.

The line halted frequently while Mrs. Hoover chatted with those who brought children. In every way the occasion was made as personal as possible.

Gleam Of Gold Lends Brilliance To Social Season At White House

By SUE McNAMARA

Washington.—(AP)—Gold is the dominant note in the brilliant social season just inaugurated at the White House.

The gleam of gold in uniforms of many countries and in the gowns of the women promise a season of unusual splendor.

The White House, during a big dinner or on a reception night, looks as if King Midas might have passed that way turning everything he touched to gold.

Gold dishes in the state dining room, gold candle sticks and gold vases holding bouquets of great rust-gold chrysanthemums all have their places in the social festivities.

Women, clad in rustling white and gold brocade or lace over gold to their part in making the scene in the White House as sparkling and brilliant as anything from a fairy book tale.

Mrs. Hoover dispensed with roses—the usual formal dinner flower—at the cabinet dinner which inaugurated the White House festivities, and replaced them with the feathery gold pompons.

The flowers were everywhere resting in gold bowls.

At the diplomatic reception, attended by 1,600 guests, Mrs. Herbert Hoover wore a gown of white and gold brocade made with a long court train. The rich gleam accentuated in her gown was caught up at a hundred angles from gold braid on uniforms and in dresses.

Mrs. Henry L. Stimson, wife of the secretary of state, also wore white and gold brocade. Mrs. Ray Lyman Wilbur, wife of the secretary of the interior, wore black lace over gold.

Dixon Unit Will Meet Wednesday

The next meeting of Dixon Unit, Lee County Home Bureau, will be held on Wednesday, Jan. 7th, at the home of Miss Edna Decker, 212 Dement Avenue. The meeting will convene at 2:00 P. M., and will be opened with a short business session. The lesson on "Scheduling Housework" will be given by Mrs. Florence Syverud, Lee County Home Adviser, and it is hoped that the entire membership will be present to hear her talk and to learn more about the unusual advantages offered to those who belong to Home Bureau.

There is no intention on the part of the officers in charge to "let down" after the success of the Christmas Party. Refreshments will be served during the social hour which will bring the meeting to a close, and a real treat is again in store for the members and friends who attend.

Food and nutrition is the subject, elected for study, this year, and it will be taken up immediately following the conclusion of the Home Management Project in March. In addition, special classes in Child Care and Training and other important phases of homemaking will again be conducted by Specialists from the Extension Division of the University of Illinois.

CHIFFON FANS COME INTO FAVOR—

Paris.—(AP)—The sweeping ostrich fan is giving way to one of chiffon in many Parisian drawing rooms.

Dusty pink is a favorite shade.

WESLEYAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY JAN. 12th—

The Wesleyan Missionary Society has postponed their meeting for one week, on account of the Week of Prayer. They will meet Monday evening, Jan. 12 with Rev. and Mrs. A. T. HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS—

Saving Decoration—If you carefully save all the house decoration from Christmas, Valentine's day, and so on, be sure to mark each box separately because it saves time and wear and tear on the decorations.

Peppermint Ice Cream—Peppermint sticks, broken up and used as flavoring in homemade ice cream, makes it delicious and the prettiest color in the world.

New Handles—New handles for your percolator can be obtained for 10 cents in any color you want to dress up your kitchen. You can screw them in yourself.

Silver Polish—If you boil your flat silver up in an aluminum pot before you start shining it, you will find the mere bath is a good polish.

Egg Stains—It is a mistake to let egg stains remain on silver. When you have eggs for breakfast, dip the spoons or forks that you used for them into a pan of salt solution as soon as you clear the table.

Unbreakable Glasses—For the children you now can get unbreakable glasses and cups and saucers that come in merry colors that they will like. They are thin like ordinary glasses and attractive.

Colored Desserts—The same old bread pudding or custard takes on new interest for the family if it comes out in a new colored garb. Vegetable colorings are harmless and do wonders to dress up a dish.

Slick Irons—A bit of an old candle used on a folded newspaper to run your iron over, is one of the most efficacious methods of making your electric iron smooth and slick.

New Touch—A brand new leather belt will brighten up an old coat quite a bit. It may either match the coat's color or contrast with it.

Sleeve Board—With styles more complicated, a little tapering sleeve board is indispensable to the home maker. It is useful for all kinds of lingerie touches and handkerchiefs, too.

JANUARY MEETING OF WOOSUNG P. T. A. TUESDAY—

The January meeting of the Woosung P. T. A. will be held at the school house on Tuesday evening, January 6, at 7:30 o'clock. Henry Hackbarth the chairman of the program committee has prepared a radio program. Come and see your favorite star in person.

A FAKER WHO BELIEVED

Coroner's juries sometimes return strange verdicts. But when you get one which reports that its subject "died from a broken heart, super-induced by a belief that God had deprived him of the divine power or healing," you have a verdict that is more than usually out of the ordinary.

This particular verdict was returned in India, where almost anything can happen. But the dead man about whom the verdict was written was an American; a man named James Brandon, born in Tennessee, who had one of the strangest careers any Tennesseean ever fashioned.

Brandon went to India years ago, possessed of a pair of magic spectacles through which, he said, he was "able to see God." These spectacles made him a holy man. He lived in a cave, and presently India's sick and crippled folk were coming to him in droves, to be healed by the laying on of hands. He grew famous and rich, remitting 5000 rupees a month back to America.

But finally some practical joker crept into his cave and stole his spectacles; and with their departure vanished the last trace of Brandon's magical power. He lost his ability to cure people, and finally he simply pined away and died—and the coroner's jury reported, quite truthfully, that he had died of a broken heart.

Now the interesting thing about this case is the obvious fact that this man believed in his own magic. And that is something worth keeping in mind.

Usually we set people of his kind down as outright frauds. The magical healer, the soothsayer, the fortune-teller, the astrologer—we lump them together as fakes and swindlers and agree that they are utterly devoid of scruples and morals.

But this man, evidently, was quite sincere; and it is probable that most people of that kind are sincere. They have the tricks of the trade, of course; the outer wrapping of deception and hocus-pocus to impress the credulous; but underneath they retain a residuum of belief. The healer really is convinced that he has a magical power. The astrologer, for all his fakery, feels sure that there really is something in it. The fortune-teller, even if he does try to tell his clients what they want to hear, believes that he is really lifting the veil of the future a little bit, in all sincerity.

So the worst thing that can happen to one of these people is the conviction that he has been robbed of his special power. He has been in touch with the supernatural. Put him out of touch, and there is nothing for him to do but die, just as this transplanted Tennesseean died in India.

THE PLACE TO ADVERTISE.

A bulletin from L. Ames Brown, president of the well-known advertising firm of Lord & Thomas and Logan, contains this interesting information:

"American and foreign clients of Lord & Thomas and Logan have placed through us this year a total of $50,000,000 for newspaper, magazine, outdoor and radio advertising. This is the largest volume of business ever placed by our company. . . . More than half of the total has been expended in daily newspapers, which are acknowledged today more than ever before as the foundation for all successful sales promotion."

It would be hard to find a better testimonial to the "pulling power" of the average daily newspaper in this country.

THE AGE OF WORKER.

That Muskogee, Okla., contractor who advertised for a number of bricklayers and specified that they must be more than 50 years old seems to have good sense, even if he is running counter to the general trend in industry.

"Old men are the best," he says. "They know more, do better work, and do it more easily. This stuff of turning men off at 45, as many do, is piffle."

It would be hard to pick any flaw in that argument. Indeed, it is rather likely that industrialists generally will return to that point of view in the next few years. The craze for youthful workers has gone beyond all reasonable bounds, and a reaction is certain to come.

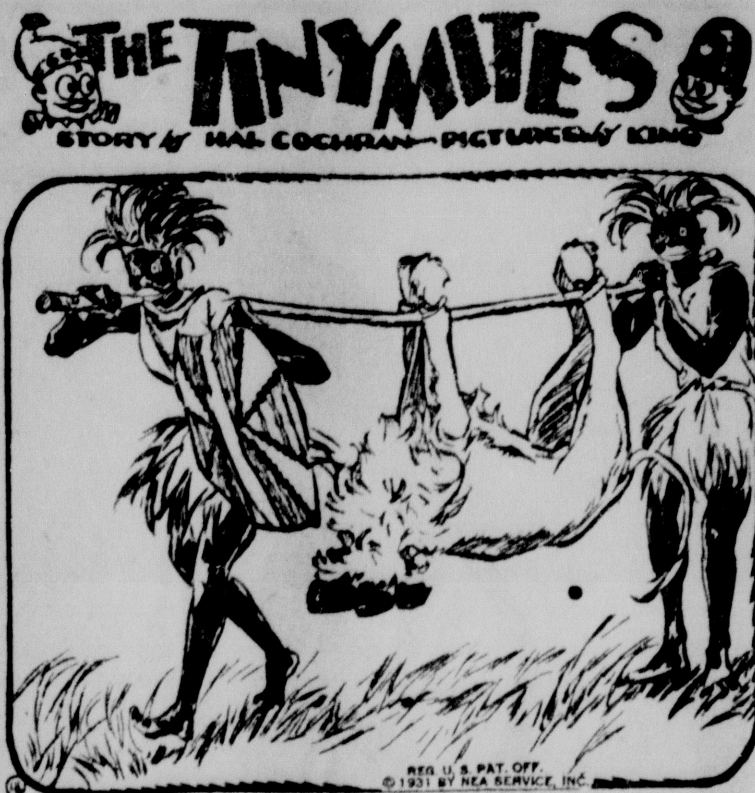

John Gregg, inventor of the shorthand system, has just married. His wife should find him adequately equipped to take dictation.

In Alaska, where Democrats also were victorious, we'll wager headline writers didn't lose the opportunity to say the opposition was snowed under.

"This is pretty hard to beat, said the cop as he rounded his block in the town's toughest section.

Will that poem of Rudyard Kipling, satirizing his country, be criticized for its re-verse English?

The rich man who marries his daughter to an unsupporting young man is also doing his bit, in giving the bride away, to aid the unemployed.

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The Tynmites were very thrilled. They'd never seen a lion killed and row they all were hiding in the native hunter's blind. Said Clowny, "This may be all right, but still I think we're in a plight. To watch our new friend kill a lion isn't very kind."

The hunter laughed. "My son," said he, "it's quite all right, as you shall see. If I don't kill the lion first he may attack this bunch. If one walks into open space, I'll have to give the beast a chase. But I will spear, instead of shoot. That is a better hunt."

"And there is more thrill to it, too. You'll all know that when I am through. For now, though, please keep quiet so we do not scare my prey. Just stay right here where you belong. The wait, of course, may be quite long. Why, I have known of hunters who have waited around all day."

So, everything was still once more. Then, suddenly, they heard a roar. "Ah, ha! A lion's coming," said the friendly hunter man. "I hope we don't give it a scare. My spear will sail through the air. Here's where you all see quite a show. I'll do the best I can."

The lion jumped out, right near by. Each of the Tynmites heaved a sigh. And then the hunter stepped out quick. With aim that they thought rare, he tossed a spear right at the beast. The great excitement was increased! The lion jumped and then its roar just seemed to fill the air.

Poor Clowny turned his head away and whispered, "All that I can say, is that I cannot watch this stunt. It's much too much for me. I fear the lion's going to die and just because it sauntered by. If it is killed, I'll frankly give it all my sympathy."

The hunter's aim was very true. The next thing that the Tynmites knew, the lion slumped down to the ground and let out quite a roar. The spear had caught him where he stood. Wee! Scouty shouted, "Gee! You're good! I've quite enjoyed this thrill, but gee, I don't want any more."

"That lion seems just like a cat, but he is dangerous at that. Perhaps it's just as well that he is stretched there on the ground. I'd hate to have him charge our way. Perhaps you've saved our lives today. Right now we'll walk right up to him and all be safe and sound."

The Travel Man came running near and gave the hunting man a cheer. "That surely was a perfect shot. Your long spear did the trick. You seemed to throw it out with ease. How do you do it, if you please?" The hunted said, "I've practiced long. That's why I seem so slick."

Then Clowny asked, "What will you do with poor lion? We'll help you, if you are going to carry him." Their hunter friend then smiled. "I'm going to save his skin," said he. "If you'll all help, just follow me. Right now that great big jungle beast looks very far from wild."

They shortly dragged a tree limb out. The hunting man began to shout. "Now, first we'll tie the lion's legs up tightly to this limb. Then, if you're strong enough to lift, we'll travel with him very swift. 'Twill be a lot of help to me, if you'll help carry him."

They did just as the hunter said. Then Clowny cried, "Look at his head. It really is a beauty. He looks meek enough to play. But I'd prefer a dog or cat to something that's as big as that." They lifted Mister Lion up and soon were on their way.

WOLFE'S BIRTH

On Jan. 2, 1727, James Wolfe, a British general, famed for his attack on Quebec, was born in Kent, England, the son of an army officer.

James entered the army at an early age and in recognition of his gallantry in campaigns in Flanders and in Scotland, he was steadily promoted. In 1759, when Pitt was organizing his grand scheme to expel the French from Canada, Wolfe, then a major general, was the choice to lead the expedition.

Wolfe landed about four miles from Quebec and with a force of 9000 men proceeded at once to attack the stronghold. The first attack failed, Wolfe retreating with a loss of 400 men. He then decided on the dangerous expedient of scaling the heights above Quebec. After more than 4500 British had ascended the steep cliffs, Montcalm, French commander, opened fire.

The inexperienced French lines were shattered. Wolfe, as he led the charge, was mortally wounded, dying as his men gained victory. Montcalm, dying too, said, "It is a great consolation to have been vanquished by so brave an enemy."

Murder of Teachers Laid To Ex-Convict

Blackwell, Okla., Dec. 31—(UP)—A woman whom authorities believed was the wife of Earl Quinn, a former convict, was under arrest today for questioning in connection with the murder of Jesse and Jexie Griffith school teachers.

Orders for Quinn's arrest were sent to cities throughout the southwest and middle west after County Attorney Bruce Potter expressed a conviction that the former convict had killed the teachers after robbing them.

Further than stating that "she has talked," Potter refused to comment upon the arrest of the woman whom he believed was Quinn's wife and who was held at Tonkawa, near where the bodies of the teachers were found last Sunday.

W. T. Capeheart, 30, recently discharged from the state hospital for the insane, remained in jail today although officers said he was virtually exonerated. He was arrested as a suspect near Oklahoma City yesterday, after he appeared at a Salvation Army Hall and said he had committed a crime "for which God will never forgive me."

Get Belated Word Quake, Tidal Wave

Sydney, N. S. W., Dec. 31—(UP)—Belated word reached here today of a tremendous earthquake and tidal wave in parts of Australasia and Oceania on the morning of Dec. 24.

A wireless message from the steamer Duris to the New Guinea radio station today said that after the earthquake a wall of water eight feet high swept the western mandated islands.

Its force was so great at Awin that houses and cattle were washed out to sea. The European manager of the island and a number of natives escaped by climbing the palm trees.

ALABAMA RANKS WITH IRISH AS WONDERFUL TEAM

Smashing Defeat Handed Washington State In Rose Bowl Game

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
Pasadena, Calif., Jan. 2.—(UP)—Alabama's Crimson Tide rolled up alongside of Notre Dame today to take its place as one of the two greatest football teams of the 1930 season.

By scoring a smashing 24-0 victory over Washington State, hitherto unbeaten far-western champions, in the 16th annual Tournament of Roses game New Year's Day, Alabama registered its tenth consecutive victory and the triumph marked the fourth time in six years southern teams have played in Rose Bowl without defeat. Alabama has hung up two victories, and played one tie, while Georgia Tech scored the other triumph.

Three sudden, spectacular touchdowns in quick succession within ten minutes of play gave Alabama the second most decisive victory in Tournament of Roses history. Three touchdowns, three kicked goals in the second period and a 32-yard goal in the third period pulled up Alabama's 24 points.

Dramatic Climax
All of the touchdowns came with dramatic suddenness. The Crimson Tide was on the ebb until two minutes after the start of the second period when the southern team put over the first touchdown in a series of three rapid fire scores.

Wallace Wade, the coach who closed his eight-year career at Alabama with this game, started a second string lineup which was unable to hold its own with Washington State. After 11 minutes of the first period, Wade, who takes over the coaching job at Duke next season, unleashed his regulars, but it was not until early in the second period that the southern cyclone struck with blinding fury. A 55-yard punt by Johnny (Hurricane) Cain paved the way for the Crimson Tide's first score.

Alabama got the return punt on its own 40-yard line.

Pull Double Pass
A double pass was executed flawlessly with Monk Campbell handing the ball to Jimmy Moore who threw a 30-yard pass to Suther who ran 32 yards for a touchdown. The pass gained 64 yards in all.

Two minutes later Alabama had another touchdown. Captain Charles (Foots) Clement, Alabama tackle, plucked a Washington State pass out of the air and was downed on the Cougars' 38 yard line.

Shifty little Monk Campbell, who was the greatest ground gainer of the day with 110 yards in 11 plays, picked up six yards on a spinner. Then Jimmy Moore dropped kicked from the line for another pass, and threw the ball 30 yards to Ben Smith, Alabama's other end, who caught the ball with two Washington State men on top of him. He was downed on Washington State's one yard line.

It took just one play for Monk Campbell to pierce center for Alabama's second touchdown.

It was only a matter of two minutes until the Crimson Tide surged through for its third touchdown. Each time Campbell place kicked goal.

A 35 yard run by Hillman Holley, substitute quarterback, enabled the southerners to score a field goal in the third period.

The longest march of the day—70 yards in ten plays—was staged by Washington State in the fourth period and fizzled out when Eimer (the great) Schwartz, Cougar's captain, fumbled on Alabama's 5 yard line.

Alabama outgained Washington State 300 yards to 191, the southerners making 201 yards on running plays and 99 yards on three passes completed out of 10 attempted. Washington State made 144 yards on running plays, and 47 yards on four passes out of 15 attempted.

Constant Worries For Knute Rockne

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Worries never cease for Knute Rockne.

All that was worrying the famous Notre Dame football coach today, after emerging from his overhauling at the Mayo Brothers clinic at Rochester, Minn., was decision to accept or reject an offer of $25,000 a year to become a journalist.

Rival Chicago newspapers were reported bidding for Rockne's journalistic services, tempting him with an offer of $25,000. Under the terms

Rockne, greatly refreshed by ten days of hospital rest, was in Chicago for 15 minutes yesterday and, carrying out his physicians' orders, did not make any radio speeches, write any magazine articles or attend any banquets during his visit. He caught a train for South Bend, Ind., at 8 o'clock. He rested and recuperated there until noon, then caught a train for New York to attend to business in connection with the automobile show.

So far as Rockne knows, there will be no banquets for him until January 15 when letters will be awarded to Notre Dame football players. After that he intends to take a long rest, either in California or Florida.

SOUTHWESTERN TEAM TOO MUCH FOR MID-WESTS

Zupke's Picked-Up Outfit Defeated 18 To 0 In Dallas Game

By GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Dallas, Tex., Jan. 2.—(AP)—One of the finest football machines the southwest ever saw was being disassembled today and its parts strewn from here to Florida, its purpose having been achieved in two brief thrill-cramped hours yesterday.

For individual brilliance and all round efficiency, it is doubtful this section ever will see a greater team than the southwest eleven that trampled the Mid-West All-Stars, 18 to 0, in the third annual classic.

The defeated forces of Coach Bob Zupke, and the southwest eleven helped create a large fund for the Scottish Rite hospital for crippled children here. Officials expressed doubt the net would be as high as a year ago, $10,000, but it promised to approach that figure.

Coach Morley Jennings of Baylor University, who assembled the southwest squad and whipped into a great offensive and defensive unit wide spread praise.

Zupke's vehicle lacked both the individual stars and the team work of the southwest. Leo Jensvold, driving halfback from Iowa, was almost the entire mid-west offense, his passes and fierce plunges accounting for virtually all of his team's gains. He made one 43-yard gallop.

Only once did a mid-west score seem imminent. That when the visitors recovered a fumble on the southwest 33-yard mark in the third period. Armstrong, burly Missouri tackle, offered a threat when he intercepted a pass and chased it back out to mid-field, almost getting away for a touchdown.

The individual hero was Buddy Hackman from the University of Tennessee. He was the main spring of the winners' attack, scoring two touchdowns, one of them on a brilliant 40-yard run, and throwing the pass that paved the way for a third score.

Louis Long, Southern Methodist, ran 40 yards to the mid-west's one-foot line after taking a short pass from Hackman in the first quarter. Hackman drove across for a touchdown. The play that led to the southwest's second score was a triple pass. Brown to Hackman to Peterson, Texas end, who grabbed the ball from two interferers on the three-yard line. Bethesda, the Florida star, took it across.

Hackman's twisting run for the final touchdown was one to delight any football crowd. Starting from about the 50-yard line after failing to spot a pass receiver, the Tennessee rambler reversed the field, cut to the side line and wormed his way past a half dozen tacklers to reach the goal rolling.

Revenue System Is Again Considered

Bunker Hill, Ill.—(UP)—The most vital question to confront the coming session of the Illinois General Assembly will be how to get rid of the present revenue system, according to State Senator A. S. Cuthbertson, Republican.

Cuthbertson, who was chairman of the Senate committee on Education in the last legislative session, described the present revenue system as inadequate and declared it has been obsolete for more than one hundred years. He declared that the amendment to the revenue section of the state constitution, passed at a special session of the legislature last June, was defeated at the polls in November because of a fear that it would imply an income tax.

With the expense of government mounting higher and higher, due largely to the increase in the number of wards of the state, the most important matter for consideration today is some method not to find another tax, but to find some method of equalizing the tax burden which will take some of that burden off the farm and the home," Cuthbertson said.

He warned that if such a method were not found it would not be long before many of the farms and homes of the state would be passing into state's hands through confiscation.

Tilden To Play In Pro Match Feb. 18th.

New York, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Big Bill Tilden will begin his career as a professional tennis player in a match in Madison Square Garden, Feb. 18, against Karel Kozeluh, crack Czechoslovakian player and world's professional champion.

Jack Curley, promoter who is sponsoring the match, said he hoped to have Tilden and Kozeluh tour the country in a series of matches this winter and spring.

Tilden recently announced his retirement from amateur competition to appear in films on tennis subjects. His work in Hollywood will begin in March.

Belgian Champion Favored In Fight

New York, Jan. 2.—(UP)—Pierre Charles of Belgium, heavyweight champion of Europe, was a slight favorite to defeat Jack Renault, Canadian veteran, in their ten-round headline fight at Madison Square Garden tonight.

Renault is substituting for Mateo Osa, Spanish heavyweight, who was forced out of the bout with an injured right arm.

Colonel W. E. Easterwood of Dallas, Texas, says:

"This much I read in one of our leading daily papers which stated that the editor of the Daily Commercial of Pine Bluff, Arkansas, would bar all news items of a depressing nature. Think what a change would come over this country if every newspaper in the United States would do this."

"To read the average daily newspaper you would think they actually are trying to prolong the depression spirit of the public by the many items of depression that ordinarily would never get into print and other than possibly of local concern, mean absolutely nothing as a news item."

"Why not feature the fact that 42 million are employed, 123 million are daily consuming food—wearing out clothing, and the shelves of the nation, both in the homes and merchants' shelves, are becoming bare. Not a single one of these millions would hesitate to go right ahead now if they were not over-cautious caused by the newspaper articles."

"When the buying power is released the factories will not be able to fill their orders, and in the meantime there will be those of foresight and common sense who will get ready for the inevitable upturn and who will carve business history for themselves and associates by getting their shelves in order, or steaming up, ready to go, to furnish the millions the greater convenience and comforts of life, because the American people have never been and never will be content to continue the present state of unnecessary and unequal fear and over-caution."

"If you are so pessimistic as not to agree with these statements please file this where you can read it again one year from this date."

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity.—Ecclesiastes 5:10.

What the word

PARCO

Means to Motorists

PARCO GASOLINES have earned for themselves a far flung reputation for uniform high quality, dependability and motor fuel efficiency. The word "PARCO" has come to mean the very utmost in motor fuel performance to thousands of motorists thruout the land.

The word "PARCO" is coined from the initials of the "Producers and Refiners Corporation." PARCO is the trade name under which the products of this corporation are marketed.

Producers and Refiners Corporation is one of America's major independent producing, refining and marketing companies. Its holdings and refinery equipment include: 650,000 acres of oil land leases; 320 wells producing 5,000 barrels of crude oil daily; three completely modern refineries with an aggregate capacity of 20,000 barrels daily; 2,500,000 barrels storage capacity; 770 tank cars and 1,400 miles of pipe line.

In addition to its own crude oil production the Producers & Refiners Corporation is closely affiliated with the Prairie Oil & Gas Company, and thru this connection has unrestrained selection of the highest grade crude oils in America. Then, by treating these superior crudes thru Parco's exclusive patented processes a PARCO GASOLINE so pure, so clean, so free of gum and sulphur is produced that it stands alone in the quality field and is recommended and approved by UNITED LABORATORIES as fuel for Gasoline Pressure Appliances in the various states.

This, then, is what the word "PARCO" means to motorists: The cleanest, purest, highest powered and longest mileage gasoline the market affords, and a uniform quality on which you can depend—ALWAYS!

Parco Gasolines are marketed under the PARCO trade name principally thru local independent jobbers in the great central western states between and including Tennessee and Idaho

News of the Churches

Good Thoughts for Good People

There was never yet a truly great man that was not at the same time truly virtuous.

—Benjamin Franklin

A great man, I take it, is a man so inspired and permeated with the ideas of God and the Christly spirit as to be too magnanimous for vengeance and too unselfish to seek his own ends.

—David Thomas

No man has come to true greatness who has not felt in some degree that his life belongs to his race, and that what God gives him, he gives him for mankind.

—Phillips Brooks

The greatest man is he who chooses right with the most invincible resolution.

—Seneca

History is full of instances of what might be termed spurious greatness. Its records contain the names of many whose lives, although accounted great in the eyes of the world, were almost entirely barren of goodness—Examine the teaching of Christ Jesus, and it will be found that the only life he approved was that in which meekness and unselfishness predominated to the exclusion of pride and arrogance; that in which honesty, compassion, affection and purity reigned.

—The Christian Science Journal
Whoever will be great among you, shall be your minister: And whoever of you will be the chiefest shall be servant of all.

—Mark 10.

CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN

Next Lord's Day is the first of another New Year that lies before us, and first of all I would wish most sincerely that every one shall have a real Happy and Successful year.

Our Sunday school lesson will be "The Birth of John the Baptist." Laying foundations is no trivial matter for even the seemingly smallest work but most especially so when it comes to that of a universal church. We shall hope you can be in some Sunday school next Sunday and every Sunday in this year just ahead. Include that in your resolutions. The pastor will have a story, "Happy Beggar," for the children. The morning sermon will be "Starting Right." The evening will greet us with the C. W. hour at 7, and the sermon, "What's New?" at 7:45. You are cordially invited.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Rev. A. Turley, Stephenson, Pastor
A good New Year's resolution to make is to resolve to make the church mean more than it has meant before and thereby show a becoming sense of appreciation for its value to the personal, home and community life. A good way to begin keeping this resolution is to start next Sunday.

The church school meets at 9:30 in all departments. C. C. Hintz is general superintendent.

The morning hour of worship at 10:45; "Things That Remain" will be the subject of the pastor's sermon. The special anthem number by the choir will be "The Short Teum" by Dudley Buck. The solo number will be sung by Deming Hintz.

The evening hour of worship at 7:00 when the pastor will preach and the special music will be a specially selected quartet number.

The Epworth League will meet at 6:00 o'clock to which all the young people are invited.

Next week will be given over to the Week of Prayer. There will be union meetings held in the various churches. All of the churches of the city are asked to keep these meetings in mind and to observe them as largely as possible. Never were Christian people called more heartily to an observance of this sort than now.

Because of the Week of Prayer the Wesleyan Missionary Society has postponed its regular meeting and will meet Monday evening, Jan. 12 at the parsonage. A picnic supper will be served, and the regular program will follow.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society will meet next Thursday afternoon, January 8, at the parsonage. All women of the church are very cordially invited to be present and share in the program of the afternoon.

DINNER BANDITS STARTED INQUIRY INTO JUDGESHIPS

Affair Opens Investigation of New York Bench by U. S.

New York, Jan. 2.—(UP)—Charges of political corruption leveled at Tammany Hall by Rep. F. H. La Guardia in his unsuccessful campaign for mayor against James J. Walker had been forgotten by most of New York's voters on Dec. 7, 1929, when about 100 guests assembled for a banquet at the Roman Gardens, in the Bronx.

Magistrate Albert H. Vitale, jovial and big in stature, was the honor guest at the gathering of politicians, a few business men interested in politics, a number of gunmen, racketeers and thugs involved in politics. Some of the guests had police records and photographs in the Rogues' Gallery.

In the midst of the dinner seven uninvited guests entered, held up the diners at the points of pistols and walked away with everything from diamond rings to policemen's revolvers. They were never caught. But they opened the way to an investigation of New York courts which has resulted in the ousting, or resignation, of five judges and involved the police vice-squad in charges of "framing" girls, who are forced to pay high fees to lawyers for their release on bond.

La Guardia's Charges
La Guardia had charged that Vitale borrowed $20,000 from Arnold Rothstein, whose murder in a New York hotel was never solved. Grover Whalen, who had been made police commissioner by the Tammany mayor, now charged that the hold-up was an effort to recover a "murder contract" in which Al Capone, the Chicago gangster, had agreed to kill Frankie Uale, or Yale, who died under a volley of fire as he drove his automobile through a Brooklyn street. Whalen also said Ciro Terranova

Daily Health Talk

DO NOT NEGLECT

SMALL OPEN WOUND
By Roland Hill, M. D.,
St. Louis, Missouri

(This series of articles is prepared under the direction of the Gorgas Memorial Institute, which is organized to perpetuate the life work of the late Major-General Gorgas in preventing unnecessary illness. The headquarters of the Institute are at 1331 G Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.)

Wounds of moderate or severe character usually receive prompt and proper treatment because of bleeding or the discomfort and disability that they cause. In this way are largely prevented the serious results of such cases.

It is in the field of what seems to be trivial injuries that we often see some of the most heart-breaking disasters. Because the injured person has not thought it necessary to have prompt and proper treatment, complications have occurred which will lead to serious consequences.

In our midst are micro-organisms capable of causing serious disease or death if once they get loose in the human system. It must always be remembered that these deadly germs may enter the human system through the smallest of abrasions of the skin or mucous membranes. In the dirt of our streets are the organisms which cause lockjaw and other forms of blood poisons. They may come to us through the nose or mouth or through some small cut or abrasion.

To illustrate the point, let us cite a typical case—J. B., a nine-year-old boy, was admitted to the hospital in a very serious condition. He had but little temperature and his pulse was nearly normal. His mind was clear, but he was having very marked spasms of the voluntary muscles, particularly around the jaw.

When he attempted to eat or move these spasms were much aggravated and he had difficulty in opening his mouth. The history of the case failed to show any injury whatever. A very careful examination of the body, however, revealed a small discharging wound on the ball of the right foot. It was very slight and had not been noticed, although, upon questioning, the boy remembered he had hurt himself 10 days before.

It proved to be one of those conditions so common on the foot where the weight of the ball on a sharp substance had caused a small penetrating wound, with the introduction of highly infectious germs. The clinical history and the symptoms made the case a perfectly clear well marked case of lockjaw, caused by the entrance of germs into the foot at the time of the injury.

The wound caused so little discomfort that the boy had not called anyone's attention to it. Yet here, ten days later, he was suffering from one of the most deadly of our human ills. A little care at the time of the accident, the cleansing of the wound with tincture of iodine or some other efficient antiseptic, and the use of a small prophylactic or preventive dose of tetanus antitoxin, and no ill effects would have followed.

Make a New Year's resolution to impress your child with the necessity of reporting any and all injuries to you—whether they be blistered heels, punctured wounds of the foot, cut fingers, or the more seemingly serious deep knife wounds.

To Probe A. T. & T.
Lansing, Mich., Dec. 31.—(AP)—Michigan and Illinois may join in an investigation of the relationship of state subsidiaries with the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. and the Western Electric Co. according to a statement issued today by Russell A. Gorman, Chairman of the state Public Utilities Commission.

"I believe it would be a good policy for Michigan and Illinois commissions to join in the investigation," Gorman said. "It is probable a conference will be held in an attempt to allocate the work."

The United States Supreme Court recently rendered a decision permitting Illinois to regulate and inquire into the Illinois Bell Telephone Co., despite the interstate commerce activities of the A. T. & T., the parent concern of both the Michigan and Illinois companies.

The investigation ordered by the Michigan commission will be expedited, Gorman said.

Munle, announcing his plans pointed out that St. Louis, Mo., police were having difficulty with criminals in that city and expressed the fear that they might take refuge and organize in St. Clair county, which is adjacent to St. Louis on the eastern side of the Mississippi river.

The organization would be active in emergencies," Munle said, "and it is hoped that it will not be necessary to call upon it for action, but it is our duty to be prepared."

Travel Class Rates
St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 31.—(UP)—A system of class rates on transcontinental trains similar to that used in Europe will go into effect tonight for a six months trial on lines serving the northwest.

Tourist car patrons may travel under the test plan for 15 per cent less than the standard fares while day coach patrons may travel at a rate 24 per cent lower.

Proposal Failed
Danville, Va., Dec. 31.—(UP)—Management of the Riverside and Dan River cotton mills here refused today to recognize the proposal of President William Green of the American Federation of Labor, for mediation of the protracted strike here of 4000 union operatives.

"We are very much obliged," President Harrison R. Fitzgerald of the mill company, said, "but we have nothing to say."

The mill management has maintained a policy of silence toward the United Textile Workers of America and labor leaders throughout the strike which began Sept. 29.

Murder at Bridge

© 1930 by NEA SERVICE INC.

by ANNE AUSTIN author of
"THE BLACK PIGEON"
"THE AVENGING PARROT"
"MURDER BACKSTAIRS"

BEGIN HERE TODAY
JULIA SELIM is murdered at bridge; four days later DEATH SPRING is her lover, is also murdered when he disappears mysteriously from an impromptu bridge party at the TRACEY MILES home, SPECIAL INVESTIGATION BY NITA SELIM, working on the theory that Nita and Sprague were partners in blackmail and that Nita had come down to Hamilton after recognizing someone in a group picture. And that the six original suspects in Nita's death had opportunity to kill Sprague also.

All six could have hidden the gun after the murder, in a secret hiding place in the guests' closet in Nita's house. Nita's will and the fact that she had Sprague convicted a hell near her bed to summon LYDIA, her maid and help, show she feared death. The police theory is that Nita and Sprague were killed by a New York gunman.

Following he is being followed, attempts to escape through the window of the trophy room, where he is found and shot through the stomach by the assassin crouching outside. Dundee pointed out the fact that all fingerprints were wiped off the hiding place, showing the murderer had been there before the bridge party to come to the Miles' house for questioning, but Clive and Polly had nothing to say.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER XXXVIII

"I'd give a good deal to know which of those two suggested that it would be a good idea to get married the first thing this morning," Dundee mused aloud, as he put down the second 'extra' which The Hamilton Morning News had had occasion to issue that Thursday.

It was two o'clock, and Dundee sat across the desk from Captain Strawn, in his former chief's office in police headquarters.

The first extra had screamed in its biggest head type: SECOND BRIDGE DUMMY MURDER! and had carried, in detail, Captain Strawn's comforting theory that Dexter Sprague's erstwhile friends had again been made the victims of a New York gunman's fiendish cleverness in committing his murder under circumstances which would inevitably involve Hamilton's most highly respected and socially prominent citizens in the police investigation.

But the second extra had a more romantic, streamer headline: HAMILTON WEDDING DELAYS MURDER QUIZ.

The story beneath a series of smaller headlines began:

At the very moment—9:05 o'clock this morning, when Celia Hunt, maid in the Tracey Miles home in the Brentwood district of Hamilton, was screaming the news of her discovery of the dead body of Dexter Sprague, New York motion picture director, in what is known as the 'trophy room,' Miss Polly Beale and Mr. Clive Hammond were applying for a marriage license in the Municipal Building.

"At 9:30, when Miss Beale and Mr. Hammond were exchanging their vows in the rectory of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, of which both bride and groom have been members since childhood, Captain Nita Strawn of the homicide squad was listening to Tracey Miles' account of the strange disappearance of Dexter Sprague from the impromptu bridge game, after he had announced his intention of taking advantage of the fact that he was 'dummy' to telephone for a taxi."

"And at 10 o'clock, when the new such a system has been tried in this country."

Organize Officers
Belleville, Ill., Dec. 31.—(UP)—Organization of all law enforcement bodies of St. Clair county is planned by Sheriff Jerome Munle, as a means of combating criminals in the county. He plans to organize the law-enforcing bodies into a group similar to that in Madison county and with which the local organization might cooperate.

Munle, announcing his plans pointed out that St. Louis, Mo., police were having difficulty with criminals in that city and expressed the fear that they might take refuge and organize in St. Clair county, which is adjacent to St. Louis on the eastern side of the Mississippi river.

The organization would be active in emergencies," Munle said, "and it is hoped that it will not be necessary to call upon it for action, but it is our duty to be prepared."

Buried "King John"
Syracuse, N. Y., Dec. 31.—(UP)—Through snow-swept streets a gypsy caravan marched two miles today to bury Yosko Koyla, the gypsy "King John" whose kingdom was bounded only by the wind and open road.

Leading the procession was King John's aged father, Yosko Koyla. Rites had been delayed two weeks to permit Yosko to attend after he was finally found in a southern state.

King John was placed in a temporary tomb at St. Agnes cemetery, with several new neckties and a wash towel beside him in his casket. At the Rev. Martinck, Slovak priest, recited the funeral rites in Latin, Polish, Hungarian and English, the gypsy king's tribesmen knelt beside the casket and prayed.

In two weeks King John's body will be transferred to a concrete mausoleum on the hillside in which his daughter is buried. He died in Rochester December 15, and was 47 years old.

To Ignore Ruling
Decatur, Ill., Dec. 31.—(UP)—Officials of Decatur hospitals will not abide by a recent ruling of Attorney General Oscar E. Carlstrom which held that osteopathic physicians had a right to practice in public hospitals, according to action taken at a recent meeting of members of the Decatur Medical Society.

Medical men declared that "who shall and who shall not practice in a hospital" is a matter for hospital authorities to decide, while the osteopaths insisted the hospitals should

Mrs. Hammond called her home to break the news of her marriage to her aunt, Mrs. Amelia Beale, the bride was in turn acquainted with the news of Sprague's murder and the fact that both she and her husband were wanted at the Miles home for questioning by the police, since both had been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Miles last night, although Mr. Hammond did not arrive until about 11 o'clock.

A dotted line illustrated Strawn's theory of Sprague's plan to elude the murderer who had followed him to the Miles home. Because of the curved sweep of the driveway toward the main entrance of the house, the tall hedge was less than two feet from the window with the partly opened screen.

"Captain Strawn's theory," read the text below the large drawing, "is that Sprague had good cause to fear that he was being followed on his way to the Miles home; that he telephoned for a taxi to wait for him at the foot of the hill, and that he planned to leave the Miles house by way of the trophy room window so that his lurking pursuer might have no knowledge of his departure. The drawing shows that his proposed flight would have been protected by hedges until he reached the wooded slope of the hill, provided his Nem

ABE MARTIN

Some husbands are cunning enough to keep within the law. Orth Clapsaddle murdered his wife without criminal intent an' today he's a free man. It's a wonder the Masons don't put on a big contest to see which kin die the oldest.

"Anybody snuffed out or robbed that we know?" asked Mrs. Joe Kite, as her daughter skimmed o'er the newspaper. A feller allus speaks e' courtin' a widow like he was puttin' over somethin' big.

Burial was in Fairmount cemetery at Polo.
